Article 24	nominations for independent directors, disclose the fact and explain the suitability of the candidacy for independent director. If the candidate is elected as an independent director, the Company shall disclose the number of votes cast in favor of the elected independent director.
	The "group enterprises and organizations" in the preceding paragraph comprise the subsidiaries of the Company, any foundation to which the Company's cumulative direct or indirect contribution of funds exceeds 50 percent of its endowment, and other institutions or juristic persons that are effectively controlled by the Company.
	Change of status between independent directors and non-independent directors during their term of office is prohibited.
	When the number of independent directors falls below the required number due to the dismissal of an independent director for any reason, the Company shall hold a by-election for director at the next following shareholders meeting. Where all independent directors are discharged, the Company shall convene a special shareholders meeting within 60 days of the occurrence of that fact to hold a by-election for independent directors.
	Independent directors shall maintain independence within the scope of their directorial duties, and may not have any direct or indirect interest in the Company. The professional qualifications, restrictions on both shareholding and concurrent positions held, determination of independence, method of nomination and other requirements with regard to the independent directors shall be set forth in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Act, the Regulations Governing Appointment of Independent Directors and Compliance Matter for Public Companies, and the rules and regulations of the Taiwan Stock Exchange or GreTai Securities Market.

	The Company shall submit the following matters to the board of directors for approval by resolution as provided in the Securities and Exchange Act;
	when an independent director has a dissenting opinion or qualified opinion, it shall be noted in the minutes of the directors meeting:
	1. Adoption or amendment of the internal control system pursuant to Article 14-1 of the Securities and Exchange Act.
	2. Adoption or amendment, pursuant to Article 36-1 of the Securities and Exchange Act, of handling procedures for financial or operational actions

	The Company shall stipulate the scope of duties of the independent directors and empower them with manpower and physical support related to the exercise of their power. The Company or other board members shall not restrict or obstruct the performance of duties by the independent directors.
	The remuneration of the directors shall be set pursuant to Article 15 of the articles of incorporation. The remuneration of the directors shall fully Article 26	reflect the long-term management performance of the Company, and shall also take the overall operational risks of the Company into consideration.
Article 20	Different but reasonable remuneration from that of other directors may be set forth for the independent directors.
	The Company, under the articles of incorporation, or by resolution of its shareholders meeting, or by order of the competent authority, sets aside a certain proportion of earnings as special reserve, such allocation shall be made after the allocation of legal reserve and before the distribution of director/supervisor compensation and employee compensations.
	For the purpose of developing supervision functions and strengthening management mechanisms, the board of directors of the Company, in
Article 27	consideration of the company's scale and type of operations and the number of its board members, may set up the Auditing Committee,
1111010 27	Remuneration Committee or any other functional committees, and expressly provide for them in the articles of incorporation.
	Functional committees shall be responsible to the board of directors and submit the proposals to the board of directors for approval, provided that the performance of supervisor's duties by the audit committee pursuant to the Paragraph 4 of the Article 14-4 of the Securities and Exchange Act shall be excluded.

Functional committees shall adopt respective organizational charter to be approved by the board of directors. The organizational charter shall contain the number, term of office, and power of committee members, as well as the rules of order of meeting and resources to be provided by the Company
