Customs Duty Endorsements or Guarantees, which denote endorsements or guarantees concerning customs duty matters provided for the Corporation itself or other companies; and3. Other endorsements or guarantees, which denote any other endorsements or guarantees that do not fall into the above two categories of this article. The Corporation shall also comply with this Procedure when pledging or mortgaging its chattels or real estate as security for loans to other companies.
Article 2	The targets of FET endorsement services shall be limited to the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none">I. A firm in business transaction with FET.II. A firm of which the Corporation owns directly and indirectly more than 50 percent voting right shares.III. A firm which owns directly and indirectly more than 50 percent of the Corporation voting right shares. The subsidiaries of the Corporation which the Corporation owns directly and indirectly more than 90% voting right shares can provide endorsements and/or guarantees to each other but the total amount of endorsements and/or guarantees shall not exceed 10% of its net worth as last reviewed or checked by CPA (Hereinafter referred to as the Latest Net Worth of the Corporation). However, the endorsements and/or guarantees between the subsidiaries of the Corporation which the Corporation owns directly and indirectly 100% are not limited within the preceding regulated scope. In the event that FET is in inter-endorsement guarantee in line with the needs to undertake projects with fellow firms or joint builders or that the whole investing shareholders endorse an investee pro rata to the investment ratio, FET may render endorsement free of the restrictions set forth in the preceding paragraph. The investment in the preceding paragraph implies capital contribution directly owned by the Corporation or indirectly owned through a 100% shareholding subsidiary. The terms “subsidiary” and “parent Corporation” as referred to in these Regulations shall be as determined under the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers.
Article 3	The total amount of endorsements and/or guarantees made by the Corporation shall not exceed 100% of the Latest Net Worth of the Corporation.

	The total amount of endorsements and/or guarantees provided for any single enterprise shall not exceed 70% of the Latest Net Worth of the Corporation. The total amount of endorsements and/or guarantees made by the Corporation and its subsidiaries shall not exceed 100% of the Latest Net Worth of the Corporation. The total amount of endorsements and/or guarantees provided for any single enterprise shall not exceed 70% of the Latest Net Worth of the Corporation. The Corporation shall explain its necessity and rationality in the Shareholders' Meeting, if the ceiling of the total amount of endorsements and/or guarantees made by the Corporation and its subsidiaries has exceeded 50% of the Latest Net Worth of the Corporation. Where the Corporation's financial reports are prepared according to the International Financial Reporting Standards, "net worth" in these Regulations means the balance sheet equity attributable to the owners of the parent Corporation under the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers.
Article 4	Before FET renders endorsement or provide guarantee to another party, the Finance & Facility Services Division shall conduct prudent assessment to confirm that it lives up to the requirements set forth in the "Regulations Governing Loaning of Funds and Making of Endorsements/Guarantees by Public Companies" (hereinafter referred to as the Guiding Rules), these Procedures and the following. The assessment results shall first be submitted to the Audit Committee for approval, and then to the Board of Directors for a resolution. To meet time efficiency, nevertheless, the board of directors may authorize the chairman to act within the authority set forth in Article III before reporting to the board of directors for approval retrospectively. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> I. Necessity and rationality of the endorsement. II. Creditability and risk assessment of the endorsement targets. III. Impact upon FET operation risk, financial standing and shareholders' equity. IV. Whether collateral is required and the value assessed for the collateral. According to the Paragraph 2 of the Article 2 of the Procedure, for providing endorsements/guarantees to another party by a subsidiary of the Corporation of which the 90% of the voting shares are held directly or indirectly by the Corporation, it requires first approved by Audit Committee first, and then resolution by the board of directors of the Corporation. However, restriction does not apply to the endorsements and/or guarantees being provided between the subsidiaries of the Corporation of which voting shares are held 100% directly or indirectly by the Corporation. Where FET renders endorsement in line of business needs, the endorsement amount shall be assessed to stay commensurate with the amount of business transaction. The term "amount of business transaction" as set forth herein denotes the amount of actual purchases, sales or trading with the endorsement target concluded in the preceding year. Where it is necessary that the endorsement exceeds the maximum limit set forth in the preceding article and it lives up to the prerequisites set forth in these Procedures, a decision shall be resolved by the board of directors and a majority of the directors shall jointly guarantee for the risk which may be incurred by the excess and these Procedures shall be amended and

	be acknowledged by the shareholders' meeting retrospectively. When the board of directors are discussing these procedures or endorsement to others, the opinions of the independent directors shall be taken into adequate account. Their opinions, pros and cons as well as the reasons of cons shall be entered into the minutes of the board of directors meeting. In the event that the target of Making Endorsements and Guarantees does not comply with the Regulations or procedure or amount of the loan so granted exceeds the limit, a plan of corrective action shall be established and submitted to the Audit Committee and shall also finish improvement by the schedule planned. The Corporation and its subsidiaries shall pay attention to the finance, business and related credit of the endorsed or guaranteed subsidiary of which net worth is lower than half of its paid-in-capital. If aforementioned Corporation has provided collaterals, the Corporation and its subsidiaries shall pay attention to the changes in the value of its collateral. The Corporation and its subsidiaries shall terminate the endorsements and/or guarantees or take the appropriate action when the collaterals have material adverse changes.
